Dedication

The Class of 2012 is proud to dedicate the 90th volume of the Nautilus Yearbook to Dr. Brian Massey, Associate Professor of Psychology.

Massey graduated from Eastern Nazarene College in 1993 with a Bachelor's degree in Psychology. He attended New York University School of Medicine in 2002 and earned his Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Adelphi University in 2003.

His life verse is "Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins." 1 Peter 4:8 (NIV)

It would be difficult to find a student on campus who doesn't enjoy any class taught by Massey, whose favorite class to teach is Group Psychology "because students are able to experience and understand real-life group dynamics, in all their messiness."

Besides his classes, Massey is also known for his drumming skills, as seen in ENC's chapel and the annual Battle of the Bands. His humor and personality (remember the cat suit?) have inspired our class and we are grateful for his positive influence in our lives.

"I am confident that God has used the unexpected circumstances of my life and work to bring about His purpose, even when I am clueless as to what that might be," said Massey when asked about his future plans.

Thank you, Dr. Massey, for your dedication and service to ENC and the Class of 2012. God has used you to touch our lives and you have made a lasting impression.

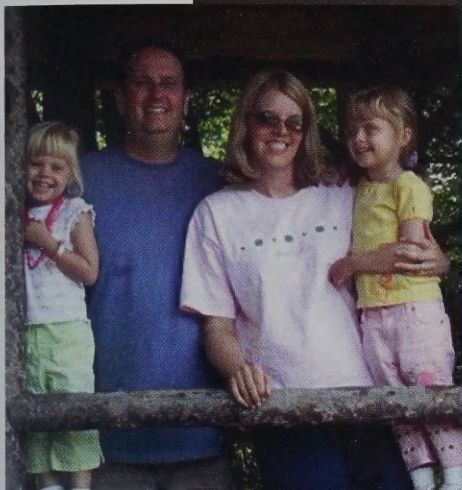

Blessings,
The Class of 2012

Dr. Massey in Battle of the Bands, as a cat.

Dr. Brian Massey

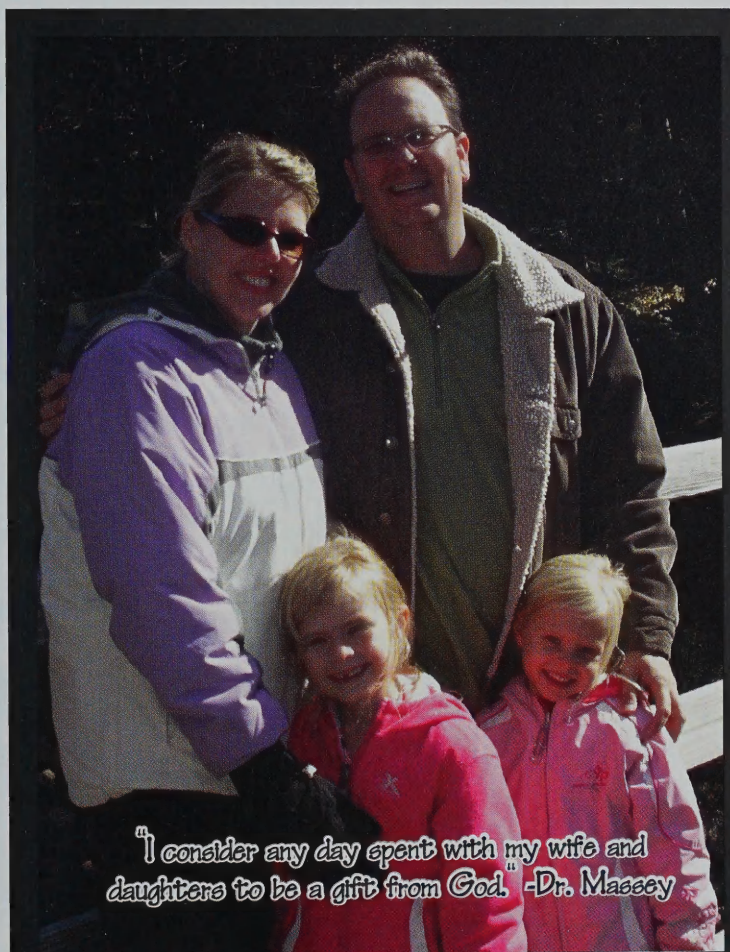

"Over the course of our often clamorous lives, we inevitably encounter persons of great volume; those whose very existence rises above the daily discord, screaming to presence of something greater than ourselves. Brian Massey, beyond all else, is a screamer: an individual of deepest love, boundless compassion, and Christ. God has been using this man to change lives at Eastern Nazarene College for 8 years and, barring a sudden ascension to heavy metal stardom, will continue to do so for quite some time.

"Best professor ever just doesn't cut it."

~ Josh Vachon

"You learn, actually learn, from him and you don't even realize it!"

~ Ketura Moise

"I consider any day spent with my wife and daughters to be a gift from God." -Dr. Massey

Dr. Massey with his family

Dear Seniors,

The yearbook you hold in your hands offers an opportunity to reflect on your time here at Eastern Nazarene College and the many changes that have occurred along the way.

In the years since the Class of 2012 first arrived on campus, our nation elected a new president and weathered a challenging economy, while the people of Haiti suffered the effects of a devastating earthquake. Here at ENC, there were changes as well. Recognizing that our school mascot, the Crusader, was not in keeping with the message of Christian love we aim to share with the world, we embraced our new mascot, the Lion, as a symbol of courage and strength of faith. We also instituted a new college slogan: Discover Your Purpose.

Far from being simply a marketing tool, this new slogan was intended as a statement of what we hope to accomplish at Eastern Nazarene College. While other colleges may seek to prepare students for a specific career track or profession, ENC has always sought to provide an academically and spiritually nurturing environment to help students discover the unique purpose that God has planned for them. I hope you feel that your time here has helped you begin to discern your special purpose.

You may find that your purpose differs greatly from those of your friends and classmates. You may even have some hesitation at leaving ENC and taking the next step in your journey with God. I encourage you to recall the words of Samuel Jean (92), who came to campus last year to share with us his experiences volunteering in his native Haiti in the aftermath of the earthquake.

"ENC is a place of safety," he said. "It's supposed to be a place of safety. People look like you, talk like you, believe what you believe. It's very different to step out of this place of safety and enter the real world, which is not a safe place. But it is a world you must engage...You may not want to go to Haiti, but you don't have to go to Haiti to make a change. People near you may need food, need clothes. There may be a student who needs someone to connect with. Part of being a human being, of being Christian, is to interact."

Proverbs 19:21 tells us, "Many are the plans in a person's heart, but it is the Lord's purpose that prevails." As you venture forth from Eastern Nazarene College on the unique journey the Lord has set before you, know that the prayers and blessings of the ENC community go with you always.

Blessings,
Corlis McGee

Footprints....

ONE NIGHT A MAN HAD A DREAM,
He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD.

Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times of his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, You said that once I decided to follow you, You would walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times of my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed You most You would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My son, My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you.

To my family, the class of 2012,

How do I sum up these four years in words on one page? We went from little freshmen to big seniors and the theme that sticks out to me is change. Everyone looks older and tired from all the late nights of work and/or video games. Our stomachs can handle anything after the combination of the dugout, the cafeteria, Chipotle, and mid-night fast food runs for four years. And, hopefully, after four years of long papers and grilling tests we are smarter and have gained the knowledge we need to be successful.

We are different people because of all the experiences we have been through. Take a second to remember a couple of your favorite moments while at ENC. Think of the people that those memories were built around. Send those people an e-mail or give them a call/text to remember that moment.

I challenge you, the class of 2012, to go out and make that difference in other people's lives. We have been built up in this community to go out and change our world. So go do it! Be the light and salt for Christ's name that we are called to be. And if you feel like you do not have that relationship with Jesus, I implore you to talk with Him. Even if you curse, or sleep through every chapel and church service, or go out drinking and partying every night, He just wants to have a relationship with you. Jesus loves you.

Philippians 1:27 - Contemporary English Version (CEV)

Above all else, you must live in a way that brings honor to the good news about Christ. Then, whether I visit you or not, I will hear that all of you think alike. I will know that you are working together and that you are struggling side by side to get others to believe the good news.

God Bless,
Bruce

"It is the job of the Executive Council to represent all students of ENC regardless of class or residential status. It is made up of seven members who make a full time effort to give the student body what it needs. These seven members are charged to do whatever it takes to strengthen the great community that already exists at ENC." - Payne Ford

"Working for the Veritas this year was fun, frustrating, and tough. I think The Veritas News is something everyone at the school can be proud of this year. I made the newspaper more journalistic (shout-out to Prof Fitzgerald), improved the writing of the newspaper (shout-out to Cody), made sure the grammar was always correct (shout-out to Alex), and put it together so it looked really good (shout-out to Jess). So as you can see, I did a lot for the newspaper this year. Without the help of a great staff, this year would have been miserable. Thank you to everyone who helped." - Bruce Faulkner

Josh Mather

"The Business Society is awesome. More specifically it is a way for the student body to interact and get a better understanding of what it means to be a business major at ENC. President Mark Sullivan, Vice-President Josh Mather, and Administrative Assistant Elise Sleeper planned events ranging from making/eating donuts to trips to Boston Bowl to help demonstrate the fun side of getting involved in the business department. As the Business Society continues to grow we hope to get students more involved with local Quincy businesses through speakers and events centered around career workshops. In other words, the Business Society is awesome."

I have grown so much just by being a part of this ministry. I can truly say that everyone in the group is looking for God, that's the best part about it all. We can talk, laugh, cry, and have fellowship together without being judged. It's really a lot of fun... we even cook together... can it get better than that?" -Angie Eligene

"The Spot for me was a moment to be reunited with my love for music."

- Jessica Silencieux

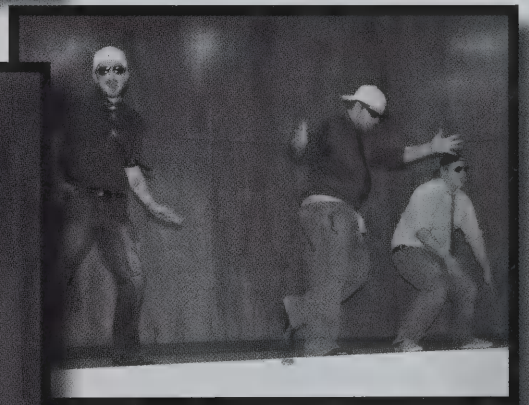

"I had a lot of fun at the talent show. It was very entertaining to watch and exciting to participate in. ENC has quite a few talented people. You never realize just what kinds of talents people have until there's an event like this. The talent show had it all, from singing to martial arts, and even tongue dancing! The show was full of surprises. I hope the ENC talent show will continue for years to come."

Discover your purpose

Your friends and family at Northridge Community Church and Fireproof Ministries are so proud of you. We wish you were heading back in our direction, but you must follow God's direction. You will always have a home at Northridge. We miss you and love you.

Dear George,

We are all so very proud of you and your accomplishments. We know that you will continue with even more success.

Good Luck to you on your next adventure.

Congratulations... We couldn't be prouder..

We Love You,

Mom, Dad, Nicholas, Grandma, and Ace

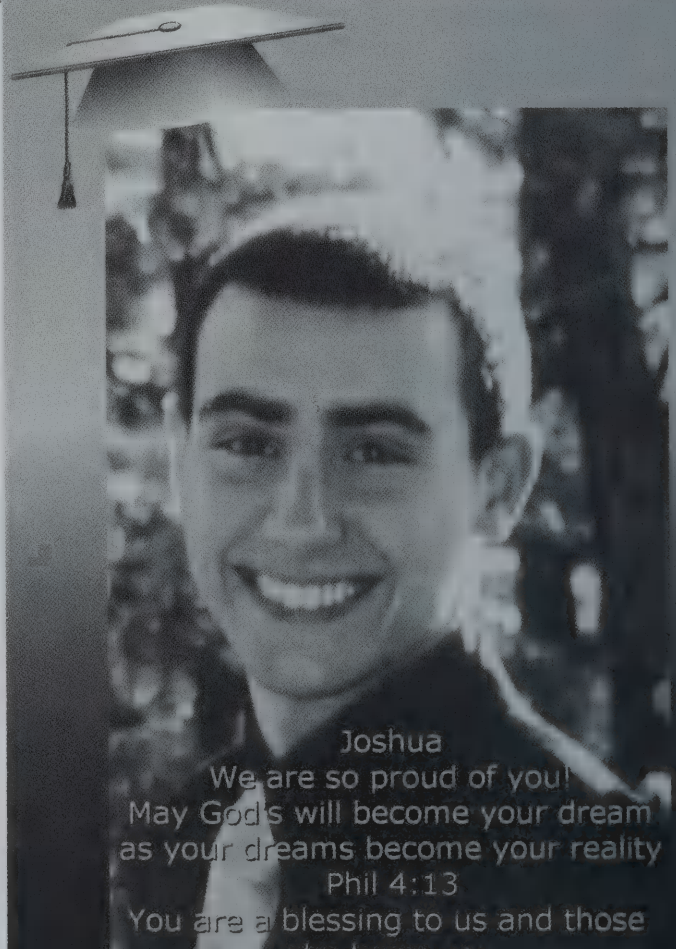

Josh, your life began as a miracle, and God has held you in His hands ever since. You have become an extraordinary person whose joy in Christ blesses those who know and love you.

(And now you can use a spoon! ☺)

You did it, Josh, and we are all so proud of who you are and what you have accomplished so far! We can't wait to see what's next!

Congratulations!

Love, Mom, Dad, Jake, Grammi, Papa,
and your whole family.

Joshua

We are so proud of you!

May God's will become your dream
as your dreams become your reality

Phil 4:13

You are a blessing to us and those who know you.

Seek the Lord first and he will continue to bless you.

Love Mom & Dad

Congratulations!

Jared Michael Lewis

We are all incredibly proud of you! May your sense of humor and kind heart continue to bless all of us who know and love you, and may God bless you in all you do!

Love,

Kerri, Mom, Dad, Mom-in-law, and Dad-in-law

Editor-in-Chief

So here it is, the 90th Volume of the Nautilus Yearbook. It has been my honor and privilege in creating this book full of memories for you. I can't say that this last year wasn't a challenge, that would be a lie. I hope that this is something you can look back on and laugh, cry, reminisce about the good ole days and remember all the friends you made throughout the years. The last four years have been an experience to say the least. I have made some of the greatest friends and I wouldn't change a thing about my time here at ENC.

I would like to thank my wonderful Nautilus staff for helping create this years yearbook. Chris Cherry, for helping gather photos, run errands, and just being a great business manager. Katie Muirhead and Jamie Crowell for their artistic eye, and layout expertise. Without all your amazing help this yearbook wouldn't be what it is. I would also like to thank Carissa Schutz for all her help as the yearbook advisor.

Lastly to the class of 2012. We made it through our freshman year with the lice epidemic, then sophomore year with swine flu. Junior year we finally got cable so we could know what's going on in the world outside of ENC, and quarter free laundry. Finally senior year flew by in the blink of an eye. From our last time unpacking all the things we accumulated over the last four years to walking across stage for graduation, we have accomplished a great achievement. Congratulations and good luck on all your endeavors. You will all be greatly missed.

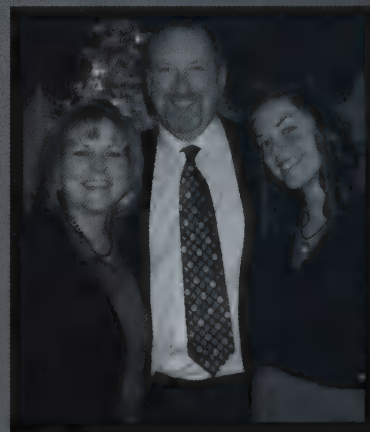

God Bless,
Candace Oates

Business Manager

I never saw myself being the Business Manager of the Nautilus Yearbook. It wasn't until Candace Oates stopped me in the hallway to ask if I wanted the position. I pondered on it and immediately said yes once I heard the words "... it's so easy" and "you get paid." Not that I'm only in it for the money, but I liked the title of being a Business Manager. This office has been so uplifting and a great place to learn about photography. Our editors and photographers did excellent on going to events and taking great pictures and editing them to perfection. It took hours upon hours but nothing was done halfheartedly. This yearbook will be one to remember. The moments captured in these photos will make you want to come back for your reunion to catch up with your classmates. I would once again like to thank our editor-in-chief Candace Oates, our layout editors Jamie Crowell and Katie Muirhead, and our wonderful photographers for giving 100% to the yearbook. We gave it our all and now it's time to move on. God bless the USA! (and other countries).

-Sincerely
Chris Cherry

Layout Designers

Working as the Layout Designer this semester has been one of the coolest experiences of my life. I have to thank Katie Muirhead for recommending me for the position! I never thought I would be able to do something like this, and the fact that I have amazes me. I had so much fun and could not have asked for better co-workers. Candace Oates and Chris Cherry are two of the best people I know and I am lucky to have gotten to spend so much time with them. I am eternally grateful for the experience and I will surely remember it forever.

-Jamie Crowell

Getting to work on the yearbook has been both an honor and privilege. I think it is amazing that I have been a part of recording what an amazing place ENC is and even more importantly, the mark that the students have left on it. I like to think that people will look back on this yearbook years from now, and be reminded of how truly unique this school has been, and even more than that, I like the thought that I will have helped in taking down those memories. This year's staff was amazing, and it really has been such a wonderful experience. So, students, when you look back here (and your kids are all sitting around you saying how weird your hair looks or how funny it is that you wore "Toms"), remember that this place, these people, are completely and wonderfully different from any other school, and the memories and experiences that have shaped us all will be with us forever, even after we all graduate and go on to become lawyers or writers or maybe parents (don't forget to tell the kids about the ENC squirrels!).

Colophon

Volume 90 of the Eastern Nazarene College Nautilus yearbook was published by the Nautilus Staff under the authority of the SGA Publications Board. The book was printed by Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas. The Sales Representative was Conrad Schmidt and the Account Executive was Nancy Dewees.

Pages in this book were designed and made by the Nautilus staff using Adobe InDesign CS3 and Taylor Tools. Pages were submitted online to Nancy Dewees in PDF format. Adobe Photoshop CS5, iPhoto, Preview 3.0 and www.mypphotoshopbrushes.com were also used.

The Nautilus is a size 8.5 x 11 trim book, containing 176 pages.

Special thanks to Carissa Schutz the Nautilus Advisor, Vern Wesley and the Student Development Office, Jan Weisen, the Student Government Association, and the Registrar's office.

Thanks to all the students who submitted photos, as well as The Veritas News for sharing photos.

*And this is love: that we walk in obedience to His commands. As you have heard from the beginning,
His command is that you walk in love.*
